LATE CHANGES TO THE AGENDA

Board Chair Stenbak presented the following public comments:

Residents, Grant Cowie children, ages 7 and 10. They would like a trail they can take from home to school and the park safely.

Resident, Elizabeth Madrigal expressed interest in an all-ability park and she included photos.

Resident and City Staff, Patricia Thompson, is excited about the stage revitalization project at Abram's Park and would like to see an event held there like the one in Alaska called Forest Fair which lasts 2.5 days. She would love to partner with Ridgefield to do an event like this and thinks the Ridgefield Art Association would be interested in participating as well.

CONSENT AGENDA

1. Approval of Minutes from Wednesday, 6/9/21 Meeting

MEMBER REPORT - 7:43 PM

No member report.

OLD BUSINESS - 7:44 PM

1. Nature Play Volunteer Day Details, Chair Kimberly Stenbak

Board Chair, Stenbak, met with Counselor Onslow to discuss park materials. Currently there are 15-18 volunteers signed up. . Megan DeMoss, the City's Communication's Coordinator, will be there at 9:00 AM to ensure she has complete paperwork on all volunteers. Public Works will be on site. The plan is to remove the existing fencing that's along the roadway, replace with river rock, do weeding and cut and install cedar rounds in the pea gravel pit for the toddler area. The use of pea gravel discourages animals from using it. Volunteers are encouraged to bring tools. Public Works Director, Bryan Kast, directed this work.

2. Details for Bark in the Park, Chair Kimberly Stenbak

Board Chair, Stenbak, presented that there will be an outreach event from 10:00 AM until 1:00 PM on Sunday, August 1st, at the Dog Park towards Great Blue. Board Member Schill said additional vendors will be present, and Rally will be there for 1-2 hours. The baseball game will also mention that people should stop by the outreach event. Discussion held on the planned exhibits including maps and a poster with ideas that attendees can vote on. Public Works Director, Bryan Kast, confirmed this outreach is an extension of the Roundtable Refuge Park Survey and the Parks Board is seeking input on use of the space around the Dog Park area.

3. Orienteering Update, Public Works Director Bryan Kast

Public Works Director, Bryan Kast, introduced City Staff, Patricia Thompson. She shared that since the temporary Orienteering course had been so successful, a permanent course is proposed for Abrams Park. She shared an Orienteering slide deck with further information, which included an Orienteering course made by the Orienteering USA Youth Mapping Program. Some Scouts are looking for a scout project. She will see if they would like to help set this up. Thompson is seeking approval of this project and volunteered to be the liaison. Additionally, the Scouts would like to set up a map for National Night Out, August 3rd. Discussion held that it's a great way to draw and introduce people to Ridgefield.

MOTION TO CREATE A PERMANENT ORIENTEERING MAP FOR ABRAMS PARK AND UTILIZE THE SCOUTS TO HELP CREATE IT.
