1. Volunteer Projects List

The City is working to develop a menu of volunteer opportunities for those interested in assisting with city related projects. Bryan opened it up for discussion and the Board provided the following suggestions:

Plantings, weeding in parks, raking, fixing divots in soccer fields, expertise in vegetation for plant materials at the dog park, trail maintenance to include trimming tall grass and pulling weeds, fence painting, blackberry remediation, renovate stage at Abram's Park, ideas for utilizing Mayor's Meadow, disc golf maintenance (check with James on any needs at Abrams Park) develop a list of people as a resource with one-two people on the small side and up to 10 on the larger side.

PUBLIC COMMENT - 6:56 PM

Council Member Sandra Day mentioned that the Friends of the Ridgefield National Wildlife Refuge and the Big Paddle purchased trash grabbers to pick up trash around the city. Trash pickup happens three times a year: spring, summer and fall. She encouraged the Board to consider adding this event to the volunteer list.

STAFF REPORTS - 6:58 PM

Public Works Update

Bryan received a proposal for a Little Library in the Green Gables subdivision similar to the one in Taverner Ridge. There will be no Board meeting in July due to another group needing this space. Construction of Ridgefield's Outdoor Recreation Center is moving forward rapidly. Golf Construction won the bid. As a result, the City will see some economic savings on this project.
